

Chief Finance Officer

Location: Beijing

Responsibilities:

- Lead both finance and accounting team members in all Chinese legal entities;
- Manage the financial capital for the organization and communicate its implications and requirements of business decisions to China CEO;
- Optimize margin by reducing incidental costs;
- Oversee the establishment of important fiscal firm reports as well as manage routine reports in alignment with China GAAP and IFRS;
- Provide the necessary support, that all legal entities in mainland China fulfill their tax duties on-time and accurately;
- Encourage the relationship with both stakeholders and shareholders;
- Determine the financial strategy including research and analysis of economic and business studies;
- Manage all aspects of information technology including strategy, architecture, operations, security and support;
- Develop and coach the finance unit and other subordinates particularly relating to financial management;
- Directly report to the China CEO and CFO in the headquarter;
- Communicate financial concerns and conclusion of business decisions to China CEO.

Requirements:

- Bachelor degree in finance or related subject;
- Excellent communication skills in Chinese and English;
- At least seven years leading financial role in an international environment;
- Long-standing experience in leading a team;
- Excellent in strategic thinking and analysis skills;
- Sound understanding of SAP and its related functions for a manufacturing company;
- Good software skills, especially in Microsoft Office

Qualified candidates are welcome to send their English resume, cover letter and photo plus intention of remuneration to Mr. John SHI at:

John.shi@eunacon-hr.cn